Patapsco Days to Focus on 20th Century Activism in the Valley During March

Patapsco Heritage Greenway and its many partner organizations invite you to celebrate PATAPSCO DAYS during March.

This year's annual exploration of the histories of the Patapsco Valley focuses on the many forms of activism in the Patapsco Valley in the 20th Century. Learn about the fight for fair housing, the efforts to save Patapsco Female Institute, the tree-huggers movement, the Catonsville 9 war protest, and more. A dozen partners will offer more than 20 programs including lectures, exhibits, guided tours, movie screenings, and more.

A special Patapsco Days PASSPORT will be available at all programs. Participants can check off the events they attend to be entered into a raffle at the end of month. The more events you attend the more chances you have to win!

Welcome Spring With a Hike in the Valley.

The Patapsco Valley Heritage Area includes great attractions for people of all interests, whether you are new to the area or have been living here your whole life. The abundance of recreational opportunities within the Patapsco Valley is particularly attractive and its hiking trails are a prominent part of the appeal.

As spring approaches CHECK OUT the NEW "Highlighted Trail" series on our website's Patapsco Valley Trail Blog and chart your next woodland experience!

UMBC Gallery Visualizes Immigration Stories

Two compelling exhibitions that focus on the topic of immigration are now on display at UMBC's Albin O. Kuhn Gallery through May 23.

"El Sueño Americano/The American Dream"

Tom Kiefer's years-long endeavor to document the confiscated belongings of migrants apprehended after crossing the U.S.-Mexico border. These photographs of "sacred objects," as Kiefer refers to them, humanize and illustrate the stories of individual people often rendered invisible by focus on the broader "issue" of immigration.

"Migration Stories"

Selections from the UMBC photography collection

Gallery hours:

Monday - Wednesday, Friday: 10:00 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.

Thursday: 10:00 a.m. - 8:00 p.m.

Saturday - Sunday: 12:00 Noon - 5:00 p.m.
